Hospital Peer Review
2012 Index

Accreditation Surveys
Stroke reduction gets another weapon, OCT:111

Adverse events
Are your people too afraid to report errors?, APR:37
When bad things happen to good hospitals, JAN:6

Award Winners
Bon Secours hospital gains recognition, NOV:128
Seeing the forest and the trees, OCT:117
Hospitals honored by Quest prize for quality, SEP:104
How to get house staff involved in QI and safety, MAY:52
Hospital achieves consistent success, MAY:54
For Baldrige winners, learning is in the journey, JAN:7

Case Studies
Facility cuts falls 88% and med erros 30%, SEP:100
How a hospital brought VAP rates to zero, SEP:102
How mobility can shorten stay, improve outcomes, AUG:94
Health system builds on success with Lean, JUN:66
Looking for a few good people, JUN:68
Program inspires fall prevention project, JUN:69
What are the things you should always do?, JAN:3

CMS
New survey tools for patient safety COPs, JUL:81
What do the CMS rules mean to you?, JUN:61
ICD-10 delayed another year, JUN:64
CMS tests hospital infection survey, MAR:28

Credentialing, Privileging, and Peer Review
Is confidential peer review in jeopardy?, JUL:73

Data Collection and Reporting
How to give the board the data it wants, FEB:15
Nine tips for choosing what to share, FEB:17

Emergency care
Waiting for the waiting to end, OCT:113
Improving emergency department wait times, APR:43

Health Care Reform
Supreme Court upholds the ACA — so now what?, AUG:85
Are you ready for an OCR audit?, AUG:91

Infection Control
When a score of zero is a good thing, AUG:89
CDC and ACS partner for improvement program, AUG:93

Joint Commission
Sentinel even data shows little change, DEC:139
The grass isn't always greener, DEC:140
DNV Healthcare, Joint Commission emphasize differences, NOV:121
What makes a hospital change accreditors?, NOV:123
What's taking so long?, NOV:125
TJC annual report shows safety improvements, NOV:126
Joint Commission's Wyatt says collaboration is the key, OCT:109
TJC communication standards in full force, AUG:87
TJC begins advanced certification for hospice, MAY:56
Joint Commission gives HAIs own web portal, MAY:57
The Joint Commission is tired of fatigue-related events, FEB:13
Joint Commission ISO announcement inspires hospital interest, JAN:1

Medication Issues
SC hospitals taking on mislabeled specimens, SEP:101
Med rec initiative achieves 95% compliance, MAR:32
Three pharmacy safety problems solved, MAR:33
Barriers to e-prescribing remain, JAN:10

Patient Safety
Nothing new doesn't mean nothing important, DEC:136
Creative efforts drive goals home, DEC:137
TJC annual report shows safety improvements, NOV:126
Are hospitals safer now? SEP:97
Leapfrog releases hospital safety scores, JUL:76
Measuring safety culture — can it be done?, JUL:77
Prenatal initiative yields safety improvements, MAR:31

Readmissions
NCQA creates all-cause readmissions measure, JUL:79
Getting it right on readmissions, FEB:20

Studies
A new way to figure out what went wrong, JUN:70
Letting it all hang out does not seem to matter, APR:40

Quality Improvement/ Evidence-based practice
Getting nurses to use evidence-based practice takes culture change, DEC:133
Call to Action wants more reporting, DEC:138
OIG work plan a useful guide for quality, NOV:129
National summit looks at overuse of treatments, NOV:130
NQF endorses chronic conditions measure, JUL:79
Skinny is good for management, too, JUN:64
A tool for every task, for every task a tool, MAY:49
Why do it if you can't measure it?, APR:44
Do quality indicators lead to over-intervention?, MAR:25
Surgical checklists come to ambulatory centers, MAR:27
Spreading the gospel of QI one person at a time, MAR:29
Quality leader focuses on compliance, JAN:9
NQF evaluates use of performance measures, JAN:11

Staffing Issues
Where health care workers train matters, OCT:118
Are you flu-shot ready?, SEP:106

Technology
Is your health IT a danger to patients?, FEB:18